Neither party shall use the name of any other party or of any trustee, director, officer, staff member, employee, or agent of the other party or any adaptation thereof in any advertising, promotional or sales literature or publicity or in any document employed to obtain funds or financing without the prior written approval of the party or individual whose name is to be used. Notwithstanding anything express or implied in this Section 7.4 to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 7.4 shall not preclude: (a) disclosure by Abeona of the name of EBRP or EBMRF in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.3 as part of a disclosure permitted under Section 7.3(a)-(d); or (b) disclosure by EBRP or EBMRF of the name of Abeona or Abeona's logo in any description by EBRP or EBMRF of its research portfolio and of its industry discovery and development program, or in connection with EBRP's or EBMRF's fundraising activities, marketing materials and/or reporting requirements.

8. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

8.1 Title; Reservation of Rights. (a) This Agreement does not convey to EBRP or EBMRF any rights in any portion of the Abeona Product, the Abeona Background Intellectual Property or the Abeona Program Intellectual Property by implication, estoppel or otherwise, but constitutes only a license to EBRP to use the Abeona Product, the Abeona Background Intellectual Property and the Abeona Program Intellectual Property as necessary to give effect to the license which may be granted under Section 9.3(d) and in accordance with all of the terms of this Agreement. Title to the Abeona Product, the Abeona Background Intellectual Property and the Abeona Program Intellectual Property shall at all times remain vested in Abeona. All rights in and to the Abeona Background Intellectual Property, the Abeona Product and the Abeona Program Intellectual Property not expressly granted under this Agreement are reserved to and retained by Abeona.

8.2 Disclosure; Prosecution. (a) Abeona shall promptly disclose to EBRP in writing any Abeona Program Intellectual Property that might, under applicable law, be patentable or otherwise protectable.

(b) Abeona shall have the sole right, but not the obligation, to file, prosecute, and maintain, at Abeona's sole expense, patents covering Abeona Program Intellectual Property. Abeona shall promptly furnish or have furnished to Abeona and EBRP copies of all patents, patent applications, substantive patent office actions, and substantive responses received or filed in connection with such applications. EBRP may through its attorney offer comments and suggestions with respect to the matters that are the subject of this Section 8.2(b) and Abeona agrees to consider such comments and suggestions; provided that nothing herein shall obligate Abeona to adopt or follow such comments or suggestions.

(c) RESERVED.

(d) Each party shall sign all necessary documents or take such other actions as may reasonably be requested in order to perfect any and all rights of Abeona in Abeona Program Intellectual Property.

9. TERM; TERMINATION

9.1 Term. This Agreement shall take effect as of the Effective Date and shall remain in effect until its expiration upon the expiration or termination of the Stanford License Agreement, unless sooner terminated in accordance with Section 9.2.

9.2 Termination. (a) The parties may terminate this Agreement at any time by mutual agreement.

(b) Without limitation to other damages to which a party may be entitled as a result of a breach of this Agreement, Abeona or EBRP (acting on behalf of itself and EBMRF) may terminate this Agreement upon forty-five (45) days written notice to the other party if the other party commits a material breach of this Agreement, unless such breach is cured within the forty-five (45) day notice period, or if such breach is not capable of being cured within forty-five (45) days unless such party during such forty-five (45) day period initiates actions reasonably expected to cure the breach and thereafter diligently proceeds to cure the breach.

(c) Abeona or EBRP (acting on behalf of itself and EBMRF), each in the capacity of a disadvantaged party (as defined in Section 13.2) shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days' notice if a Force Majeure condition has prevented performance by the other party for more than sixty (60) consecutive days or an aggregate one hundred twenty (120) days in any 12-month period; provided that this Section 9.2(c) shall not apply in the event and to the extent it conflicts with the provisions of Section 9.3(d), the intention of the parties being that in the event of a conflict Section 9.3(d) should control.

(d) Abeona shall have the right to terminate this Agreement with written notice to EBRP if authorization and approval to perform the Program is withdrawn by the FDA or other Regulatory Authorities or human or toxicological test results support termination of the Program for reasons of safety or if the emergence of any adverse event or side effect in the Program is of such magnitude or incidence in the opinion of Abeona as to support termination.

(e) Abeona or EBRP (acting on behalf of itself and EBMRF) shall have the right to terminate this Agreement if the other party commences a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code or acquiesces to any petition filed against it in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code, or if such party contests such action, such case is not dismissed within sixty (60) days of its initial filing.

9.3 Consequences of Termination. (a) Upon termination (including expiration) of this Agreement for any reason: (i) Abeona will terminate all tasks (if any) for the Program in an orderly manner, as soon as practical and in accordance with a schedule agreed to by the parties; and (ii) Abeona shall deliver to EBRP copies of all materials developed through the termination of the Program.

(b) Subject to Section 9.2, upon any termination (including expiration) of this Agreement each party shall return to the other party or certify in writing to the other party that it has destroyed all documents (including those stored on computer systems and networks) and other tangible items it or its employees or agents have received or created pertaining, referring or relating to the Confidential Information of the other party; provided, that a party is permitted to retain one copy of such materials in its legal files to be used to verify compliance with its obligations hereunder.

(c) Nothing herein shall be construed to release either party of any obligation which matured prior to the effective date of any termination.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated by EBRP based upon Abeona's breach of its diligence obligations under this Agreement, having reference to whether such breach results in termination of the Stanford License Agreement(s), then effective upon such termination Abeona hereby grants and agrees to grant to EBRP an exclusive, royalty-bearing license, including the right to sublicense, under the Abeona Background Intellectual Property and the Abeona Program Intellectual Property to make, have made, use, offer to sell, sell and import the Abeona Product. The license granted under this Section 9.3 shall take effect upon the occurrence of the events specified in this Section 9.3(d) and EBRP shall pay to Abeona as royalties with respect to such license fifty percent (50%) of any revenue EBRP receives as a result of such license, provided that, EBRP shall credit against such royalty obligation all documented costs and expenses incurred by EBRP (but not any third party including any assignee or sublicensee of EBRP) in connection with the development of the Abeona Products during the period following the date EBRP exercises its rights pursuant to Section 9.3(d) that are not reimbursed by a third party. If the parties dispute whether the events specified in this Section 9.3(d) have occurred, they shall resolve such dispute in accordance with Section 12. The parties shall negotiate a license agreement containing commercially reasonable and mutually acceptable terms using the procedure set forth in Sections 12.1-12.2. It is understood and agreed that with respect to this Section 9.3(d), the definitions of Abeona Background Intellectual Property and Abeona Program Intellectual Property the term "Affiliate" shall exclude any third party that becomes an Affiliate of Abeona after the Effective Date as a result of a transaction in which (i) such third party directly or indirectly acquires all or substantially all of the stock or assets of Abeona or (ii) Abeona is consolidated or merged into such third party or any of its affiliates; if the result of a transaction described in clause (i) or (ii) is that any "person" or "group" (within the meaning of Section 13(d) or 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) acquires, directly or indirectly, the beneficial ownership, of a majority of the voting power of Abeona and specifically excluding any person or group that is controlled directly or indirectly by Abeona or its present officers or directors; provided further, that with respect to any such third party, the non-applicability of this Section 9.3(d) shall only take effect in the event and to the extent that it would require such acquiring third party to include in any license granted pursuant to this Section 9.3(d) any Intellectual Property Rights that it held prior to the date it becomes an Affiliate of Abeona or any Intellectual Property Rights it develops that are not based upon or related to the performance of the activities specified in the Research and Development Plan.

(e) If the license set forth in this Section 9.3 takes effect, Abeona shall provide EBRP within thirty (30) Business Days following the occurrence of the events specified in Section 9.3(a) or (d) or within thirty (30) Business Days following resolution of any dispute concerning whether such events have occurred, if such matter becomes the subject of the procedures specified in Section 12, Abeona shall provide EBRP with access to all non-clinical, pre-clinical, clinical, safety and other data and information (including data and information concerning the manufacture of Licensed Products) arising from the Program. The use of all such data and information shall be limited to use solely in connection with the license granted under Section 9.3(d) and for no other purpose. The parties shall also confer regarding the steps necessary to coordinate the wind down of activities under the IND for which Abeona is the sponsor and the assumption of "sponsor" activities by EBRP so that such activities are undertaken in accordance with Applicable Laws.

(f) The licenses granted under this Section 9.3 shall be treated as licenses of rights to "intellectual property" (as defined in Section 101(56) of Title 11 of the United States Code, as amended (the "Bankruptcy Code")) for purposes of Section 365(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. The licensee may elect to retain and may fully exercise all of its rights and elections under the Bankruptcy Code provided, that it abides by the terms of this Agreement.

(g) Sections 1, 7, 8, 9.3, 10, 11, 12, 13.1 and 13.4-13.15 shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.

10. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES; COVENANTS

10.1 Authorization, etc. Each party hereby represents and warrants to the others that: (a) it has all requisite power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; (b) this Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by such party, constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of such party and is enforceable against such party in accordance with its terms; (c) it is under no contractual or other obligation or restriction that is inconsistent with its execution or performance of this Agreement.

10.2 Legal Compliance. Abeona hereby represents and warrants to EBRP that it will perform its obligations under this Agreement and the Research and Development Plan in a professional manner, and will comply, in all material respects, with all Applicable Laws, including but not limited to those administered by FDA.

10.3 Personnel; Services. Abeona hereby represents and warrants to EBRP and EBMRF that each of the persons it assigns to perform services in connection with the Program, whether such personnel are employed by Abeona or by subcontractors, shall have the proper skill, training and experience so as to be reasonably able to perform in a competent and professional manner and that all work will be so performed.

10.4 Warranty Disclaimer. SECTIONS 10.1-10.3 SET FORTH THE ONLY WARRANTIES PROVIDED BY ANY PARTY CONCERNING THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. THESE WARRANTIES, TOGETHER WITH THE INDEMNIFICATION UNDERTAKINGS OF SECTION 11.3, ARE MADE EXPRESSLY IN LIEU OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, MERCHANTABILITY, NON-INFRINGEMENT, TITLE OR OTHERWISE.

11. REMEDIES; RISK ALLOCATION

11.1 Equitable Remedies. The parties acknowledge and agree that, in the event of a breach or a threatened breach of Sections 7 and 8 of this Agreement, a party may suffer irreparable damage (in addition to financial harm) for which it will have no adequate remedy at law and, accordingly, a party shall be entitled to injunctive and other equitable remedies to prevent or restrain, temporarily or permanently, such breach or threatened breach, without the necessity of posting any bond or surety. Such remedies shall be in addition to any other remedy that such party may have at law or in equity.

11.2 Limitation of Liability. EXCEPT FOR DAMAGES ARISING UNDER SECTION 5 AND EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED IN SECTION 11.3 WITH RESPECT TO THIRD PARTY CLAIMS, IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER FOR ANY LOST PROFITS OR SAVINGS OR FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT, HOWEVER CAUSED, UNDER ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE PARTIES HAVE ADVISED OR BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF ANY SUCH LOSS OR DAMAGE.

11.3 Risk Allocation. (a) Subject to the provisions of Section 11.3(b), Abeona will defend, indemnify, and hold harmless EBRP and EBMRF and their respective, directors, officers, employees, agents, and their successors and assigns (each, in such capacity, a “EBRP Indemnified Party”) from and against any claim, suit, demand, loss, damage, expense (including reasonable attorneys’ fees of EBRP Indemnified Party(ies) and those that may be asserted by a third party) or liability (collectively, “Losses”) arising from any claim or proceeding against the EBRP Indemnified Party(ies) by a third party to the extent that such claim or proceeding is based on: (i) any breach of Abeona’s representations and warranties under this Agreement; or (ii) any negligence or intentional misconduct by Abeona (or its employees, agents or representatives) in performing its obligations under this Agreement or any Research and Development Plan or; (iii) any claim of infringement of patent rights with respect to the Abeona Products; or (iv) product liability or personal injury (including, but not limited to, actions in the form of tort, warranty, or strict liability) arising from or relating to the development, testing, manufacture, commercialization, use or other disposition of any Abeona Products by Abeona, its Affiliates, licensees and sublicensees, distributors or agents pursuant to any license or rights granted under this Agreement. The foregoing indemnification action shall not apply in the event and to the extent that such Losses arose as a result of any EBRP Indemnified Party’s negligence, intentional misconduct or breach of this Agreement.

(b) To receive the benefit of indemnification under Section 11.3(a), the EBRP Indemnified Party must: (i) promptly notify Abeona of any claim or proceeding; provided, that failure to give such notice shall not relieve Abeona of its indemnification obligations except where, and solely to the extent that, such failure actually and materially prejudices the rights of Abeona; (ii) provide reasonable cooperation to Abeona (and its insurer), as reasonably requested, at Abeona's cost and expense; and (iii) tender to Abeona (and its insurer) full authority to defend or settle the claim or suit using counsel reasonably satisfactory to the EBRP Indemnified Party; provided that no settlement requiring any admission by the EBRP Indemnified Party or that imposes any obligation on the EBRP Indemnified Party shall be made without the EBRP Indemnified Party's consent. Abeona has no obligation to indemnify a EBRP Indemnified Party in connection with any settlement made without Abeona's written consent. The EBRP Indemnified Party has the right to participate at its own expense in the claim or suit and in selecting counsel therefore using counsel reasonably acceptable to Abeona; provided, that if (1) there is a conflict of interest that would prevent Abeona, on the one hand, and the EBRP Indemnified Party on the other hand, from being represented by a single law firm in the defense of such claim or suit, or (2) there shall be one or more additional defenses available to EBRP Indemnified Party(ies) that are not available to Abeona, then in each such instance Abeona shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of one law firm serving as counsel for the EBRP Indemnified Party(ies), as applicable, which law firm shall be subject to the prior consent of Abeona, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed].

12. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

12.1 Escalation. The parties will attempt to settle any claim or controversy arising out of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof through consultation and negotiation in good faith in a spirit of mutual cooperation. Such matters will be addressed by the Chief Executive Officer of EBRP and the Executive Chairperson of Abeona, or their designees for resolution. They will use reasonable efforts to attempt to resolve the dispute through good faith negotiations by telephone or in person as may be agreed. If they fail to resolve the dispute within thirty (30) days after it is referred to them and do not mutually agree to extend the time for negotiation, then the dispute will be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the procedure set forth in Section 12.2.

12.2 Arbitration. (a) Except with respect to actions covered by Section 12.2(b), any claim or controversy arising in whole or in part under or in connection with this Agreement or the subject matter hereof that is not resolved pursuant to Section 12.1 will be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration (the "Rules") of the Center for Public Resources ("CPR"), as such Rules may be modified by this Section 12.2. If a party intends to begin an arbitration to resolve a dispute arising under this Agreement after the provisions of Section 12.1 have been exhausted, such party shall provide written notice (the "Arbitration Request") to the other party of such intention and the issues for resolution. From the date of the Arbitration Request and until such time as the dispute has become finally settled, the running of the time periods as to which a party must cure a breach of this Agreement becomes suspended as to the subject matter of the dispute. Unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, during the period of time that any arbitration proceeding is pending under this Agreement, the parties shall continue to comply with all those terms and provisions of this Agreement that are not the subject of the pending arbitration proceeding. The arbitration shall be conducted by one arbitrator, who will be agreed upon by the parties to such claim or controversy. If the applicable parties are unable to agree upon a single arbitrator within thirty (30) days following the date arbitration is demand, then the arbitrator shall be selected from a list of at least five nominee's selected by the CPR within ten (10) Business Days after the date the parties notify the CPR of their inability to agree upon an arbitrator. The parties shall have twenty (20) Business Days after the receipt of such nominations to agree on an arbitrator who shall not be an employee, director or equity holder of any applicable party or, failing to agree, to rank-order their preferences with the most preferred being given the lowest number, and deliver the rank-order to the CPR. If the parties have not themselves agreed upon an arbitrator and notified the CPR, the CPR shall notify the parties of the selection within five (5) Business Days of receipt of the rank-order preferences from each party. If none of the nominees is acceptable to a party, the procedure shall be repeated with a new slate of nominees, and, if the parties cannot select the arbitrator the second time, the CPR shall select the arbitrator within five (5) Business Days of receipt of responses from each party to the second round.

Within five (5) Business Days after the designation of the arbitrator, the parties shall each submit a written statement of their respective positions on such disagreement to the arbitrator and one another. Each party shall have thirty (30) Business Days from receipt of the other party's submission to submit to the arbitrator and the other party a written response thereto, which shall include any scientific, technical and regulatory information in support thereof. The arbitrator shall have the right to meet with the parties, either alone or together, as necessary to make a determination. No later than thirty (30) Business Days after the designation of the arbitrator, the arbitrator shall make a determination by selecting the resolution proposed by one of the parties that the arbitrator deems as a whole to be the most fair and reasonable to the parties in light of the totality of the circumstances. The arbitrator shall provide the parties with a written statement setting forth the basis of the determination in connection therewith. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive.

Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, all such arbitration proceedings will be held in New York, New York, provided that proceedings may be conducted by telephone conference call with the consent of the arbitrator(s). All arbitration proceedings will be conducted in the English language and the arbitrator will apply the law of New York. The arbitrator(s) will only have the authority to award actual money damages (with interest on unpaid amounts from the date due) and, except with respect to a breach or nonperformance of any provision of this Agreement relating to Confidential Information, the arbitrator will not have the authority to award indirect, incidental, consequential, exemplary, special, punitive or any other type of damages not measured by a party's compensatory damages, and the parties expressly waive any claimed right to such damages. The arbitration will be of each applicable party's individual claims only, and no claim of any other party will be subject to arbitration in such proceeding. The costs and expenses of the arbitration and the costs and expenses of the parties, will be paid by the losing party. If a party fails to proceed with arbitration, unsuccessfully challenges the arbitration award, or fails to comply with the arbitration award, the other party is entitled to costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, for having to compel arbitration or defend or enforce the award. Except as otherwise required by law, the parties and the arbitrator will maintain as confidential all information or documents obtained during the arbitration process, including the resolution of the dispute. Judgment on the award granted in any arbitration hereunder may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the award or any of the parties or any of their respective assets. The parties knowingly and voluntarily waive their rights to have their dispute tried and adjudicated by a judge and jury except as expressly provided herein.

(b) The provisions of Section 12.2(a) will not apply to any claim or controversy involving infringement or misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Right of a party. Nothing in this Section 12.2 will prevent a party from resorting to judicial proceedings if: (i) interim relief from a court is necessary to prevent serious and irreparable injury to such party; or (ii) litigation is required to be filed prior to the running of the applicable statute of limitations. The use of any alternative dispute resolution procedure will not be construed under the doctrine of laches, waiver or estoppel to affect adversely the rights of a party.

13. GENERAL

13.1 Independent Contractors. Each party represents that it is acting on its own behalf as an independent contractor and is not acting as an agent for or on behalf of any third party. This Agreement and the relations hereby established by and among Abeona and EBRP does not constitute a partnership, joint venture, franchise, agency or contract of employment. Neither party is granted, and neither party shall exercise, the right or authority to assume or create any obligation or responsibility on behalf of or in the name of any other party or such party's Affiliates. Each party shall be solely responsible for compensating all its personnel and for payment of all related workers' compensation, unemployment and withholding taxes. Neither party shall provide the other party's personnel with any benefits, including but not limited to compensation for insurance premiums, paid sick leave or retirement benefits.

13.2 Force Majeure. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, in the event that a delay or failure of a party to comply with any obligation created by this Agreement is caused by acts of God, wars (declared or undeclared and including the continuance, expansion or new outbreak of any war or conflict now in existence), revolution, civil commotion, acts of public enemy, labor strikes (other than employees of the affected party), terrorism, embargo or acts of government in its sovereign capacity ("Force Majeure"), the "affected party" will, after giving prompt notice to the "disadvantaged party(ies)," be excused from such performance on a day-to-day basis during the continuance of such prevention, restriction, or interference (and the disadvantaged party(ies) will likewise be excused from performance of its obligations on a day-to-day basis during the same period), provided, however, that the affected party will use its best efforts to avoid or remove the causes of nonperformance and all parties will proceed immediately with the performance of their obligations under this Agreement whenever the causes are removed or cease. If Force Majeure conditions continue for more than sixty (60) consecutive days or an aggregate one hundred twenty (120) days in any 12-month period, then the disadvantaged party may terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 9.2(c).

13.3 Assignment. This Agreement will be binding on and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. No party may assign this Agreement or any of its rights under this Agreement nor delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement without the express prior written consent of the other parties; provided that each party may assign this Agreement without the consent of the other parties to an Affiliate or in connection with any merger, acquisition, or sale a majority of such party's voting stock or a sale of substantially all such party's assets; provided, further, that in each instance the assignee expressly assumes all obligations imposed on the assigning party by this Agreement in writing and each of the other parties is notified in advance of such assignment. Any purported assignment in violation of this Section 13.3 shall be null and void.

13.4 Notices. Unless otherwise provided herein, any notice, report, payment or document to be given by one party to another shall be in writing and shall be deemed given when delivered personally or mailed by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid (such mailed notice to be effective on the date which is three (3) Business Days after the date of mailing), or sent by nationally recognized overnight courier (such notice sent by courier to be effective one (1) Business Day after it is deposited with such courier), or sent by telefax (such notice sent by telefax to be effective when sent, if confirmed by certified or registered mail or overnight courier as aforesaid) to the address set forth on the signature page to this Agreement or to such other place as a party may designate as to itself by written notice to the other party.

13.5 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, subject to, and construed in accordance with the substantive laws of New York without regard for any choice or conflict of laws rule or provision that would result in the application of the substantive law of any other jurisdiction.

13.6 Waivers. The waiver by a party of a breach or default under any provision under this Agreement or the failure of such party to exercise its rights under this Agreement in any instance shall not operate or be construed as a continuing waiver or a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed or shall constitute a waiver of any other provision hereof (whether or not similar).

13.7 Integration. The terms and provisions contained in this Agreement (including the Attachments) constitute the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the transactions and matters contemplated hereby and supersede all previous communications, representations, agreements and understandings relating to the subject matter hereof. No representations, inducements, promises or agreements, whether oral or otherwise, between the parties not contained in this Agreement shall be of any force or effect. No agreement or understanding extending this Agreement or varying its terms shall be binding upon either party unless it is in a writing specifically referring to this Agreement and signed by a duly authorized representative of the applicable party. To the extent any terms or provisions of a Research and Development Plan conflict with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall control, except to the extent that the applicable Research and Development Plan expressly and specifically states an intent to supersede the Agreement on a specific matter.

13.8 Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement and such invalid or unenforceable provision shall be construed by limiting it so as to be valid and enforceable to the maximum extent compatible with, and possible under, applicable law.

13.9 Binding Effect, Benefits. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns; nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended to confer on any person or entity other than the parties hereto or, as applicable, their respective successors and permitted assigns, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

13.10 Headings. The Section headings are inserted for convenience of reference only and are not intended to be a part of or to affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement

13.11 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Facsimile signatures shall be accepted as original signatures, orders may be transmitted electronically and any document created pursuant to this Agreement may be maintained in an electronic document storage and retrieval system, a copy of which shall be considered an original.

13.12 Further Assurances. Each party covenants and agrees that, subsequent to the execution and delivery of this Agreement and without any additional consideration, it will execute and deliver any further legal instruments and perform any acts which are or may become reasonably necessary to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement.

13.13 Rules of Construction. The parties agree that they have participated equally in the formation of this Agreement and that the language and terms of this Agreement shall not be construed against a party by reason of the extent to which such party or its professional advisors participated in the preparation of this Agreement.

13.14 Word Meanings. Words such as herein, hereinafter, hereof and hereunder refer to this Agreement as a whole and not merely to a section or paragraph in which such words appear, unless the context otherwise requires. The singular shall include the plural, and each masculine, feminine and neuter reference shall include and refer also to the others, unless the context otherwise requires.

13.15 Competitive Activity. Each party to this Agreement acknowledges and agrees that nothing in this Agreement shall restrict or prevent EBRP's or EBMRF's ability to provide funding to, or take any other action with respect to, any Person that competes with a Abeona Product or the business, operations, and/or research of Abeona; and Abeona hereby waives any claim against EBRP or EBMRF with respect to any such competing activities. Abeona agrees that it shall conduct any research or development activities relating to Epidermolysis Bullosa solely through Abeona and shall cause any Affiliate to comply with the foregoing. It is understood and agreed that for purposes of this Section 13.15, the term "Affiliate" shall exclude any third party that becomes an Affiliate of Abeona after the Effective Date as a result of a transaction in which (i) such third party directly or indirectly acquires all or substantially all of the stock or assets of Abeona or (ii) Abeona is consolidated or merged into such third party or any of its affiliates; if the result of a transaction described in clause (i) or (ii) is that any "person" or "group" (within the meaning of Section 13(d) or 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) acquires, directly or indirectly, the beneficial ownership, of a majority of the voting power of Abeona and specifically excluding any person or group that is controlled directly or indirectly by Abeona or its present officers or directors; provided further, that with respect to any such third party, the non-applicability of this Section 13.15 shall only take effect in the event and to the extent that those provisions would require such acquiring third party to cease activities that were being actively pursued prior to the date it becomes an Affiliate of Abeona. Each of Abeona and EBRP and EBMRF understands and agrees that the provisions of this Section 13.15 shall not be construed to release Abeona or EBRP or EBMRF from their obligations of confidentiality under Section 7.

Should the entity acquiring control of Abeona, or the affiliates of such entity, have a research and development program that is conducting a Phase II Clinical Trial or Phase III Clinical Trial or commercializing a product with a target product profile substantially equivalent to that of any Therapeutic Peptides or Products being actively developed by Abeona at that time (a "Competitive Program"), then, unless the Parties agree otherwise in writing, Abeona shall, within six (6) months after the date of the Change of Control, notify EBRP whether Abeona agrees to: (i) continue this Agreement, in which case Abeona shall commit resources to the development of the Selected DRPs, Therapeutic Peptides and Products at least equivalent to those previously planned to be committed by Abeona and at least equivalent to those committed at a comparable stage of development to the Competitive Program; or (ii) Abandon the Abeona Target; Should the Change of Control result, in EBRP's reasonable opinion, in a risk of sensitive commercial or technical information being disclosed to a competitor of EBRP, (1) the SAB shall be dissolved, and (2) appropriate provisions shall be put in place to ensure that no sensitive commercial or technical information is disclosed to such competitor; and All other provisions of this Agreement shall continue to apply.
